Entrusting your child’s college education to us is a privilege and responsibility we take seriously at the University of Southern California. We embrace parents as honored members of the Trojan Family and as valued partners, who are helping us to prepare the leaders, innovators and creators of tomorrow.

Trojan parents are generous supporters of our efforts to provide an exemplary experience for all of our students. As USC Parent Leadership Circle Executive Committee Co-Chairs Mara and Joseph Carieri express it: “We first experienced USC through the lens and experiences of our sons, but after Mara and I had the opportunity to interact firsthand with the faculty and administration as well as our sons’ fellow classmates, we knew we wanted to become involved and give back to the community. As a result, we have re-evaluated our charitable giving to make USC a priority for our family. By doing so, we hope that we can give all students the same opportunities and life-changing experiences as our children had.”
Membership Levels and Courtesies
